

FOXBOROUGH HISTORICAL COMMISSION

Mission Statement

The Foxborough Historical Commission's role is to ensure that the historic resources and assets of Foxborough, which are key to its identity, are preserved and protected for future generations.

Through preservation, education, advocacy and partnership we strive to preserve all the resources that document our heritage including houses, streetscapes, landscapes, collections and cultural traditions. We will be alert to threats and be a focal point for action and create vehicles to promote preservation.

We will collect, exhibit and conserve artifacts and archival materials made, used or associated with Foxborough.

We will rely on affiliations with the national and state preservation communities, cooperate with town government and collaborate with civic, neighborhood and cultural organizations and the strength of volunteers to promote preservation complimentary to the historic character of the Town.

The Foxborough Historical Commission will establish a clear and firm position against all threats to the integrity of Foxborough historic resources. We will develop explicit criteria in which to judge issues and to adhere to our judgement with vigor, honesty and consistency.
