12:40 PM Select Board Executive Session

To discuss strategy with respect to the deployment of security services relating to the world cup, particularly in relation to grants for the deployment of security services.

Discussion ensued regarding the deployment of security services relating to the world cup, particularly in relation to grants for the deployment of security services. How the Grant would be executed and how the reimbursement of funds would hit in another fiscal year. Discussion around how this is not something the Town pushed for but now its here and we have to plan. The World Cup ser to be played at Gillette Stadium in June 2026, is not currently license – need to see a complete application.

*Move to allow Town staff to submit grant application through 2026 FIFA World Cup Grant Program to cover cost of security and public safety services subject to: 1. Full license application due to Town by 1/2/2026. 2. Further except all police, fire, security services and capital to be paid for upfront. 3. Insurance – comparable policies must be in place to cover these events (and all 39+ days) by M.Elfman Stephanie McGowan 2nd.

Motion to adjourn.by by M.Elfman Stephanie McGowan 2nd.
